

Biography

Joseph Starwood

Mr. Starwood is a Senior Manager of Enterprise Architecture in North America for a global business and information technology (IT) consulting firm.

Mr. Starwood has more than 23 years experience in business and IT. Previously, he was an Enterprise Architect with the Westfield Group, a regional insurance company. Before this, he was a member of IBM Global Services' Enterprise Architecture & Technology Center of Excellence (EA&T-COE), and served on its thought-leadership team for Composite Business Services. Prior to that, he co-founded and later led Keane, Inc.'s e-Architecture Strategic Practice, and he co-authored its Multi-Tier/Client-Server Development Method.

Mr. Starwood presented at:

- Great Lakes Software Excellence Conference 2011 Link
- Calvin College 2010 Colloquium Series Link
- Integrate 2010: Uniting the World of IT Symposium Link
- SEI Architecture Technology User Network (SATURN) 2009 Link
- Financial Services Solutions Symposium (2008 & 2009)

and he contributed to:

- Software Engineering Institute, Hard Problems in SOA Workshop (2008)

Mr. Starwood is a co-founder of and past-Secretary for the Northeast Ohio Information Technology & Enterprise Architecture community of practice (NEO-ITEA), and the Northeast Ohio chapter of the International Association of Software Architects (NEO-IASA).